

EL PASO GRADUATES WIDELY SCATTERED; MANY ATTENDING DISTANT UNIVERSITIES

WITH the approach of graduation time, a natural interest is aroused in what the graduates of former El Paso classes are doing.

Of the graduates of the class of 1914 Eugene Smith is at work in El Paso; Miss Katherine Glenn is a student at the University of Texas; Miss Charles Carter is at home in El Paso; Lucas Bacon is a student in the University of Wisconsin; Miss Eunice Anderson is a student in the Temple Normal school in Arizona; Miss Alice Bishop is at home in El Paso; Miss Christina Moellrich is a student at the University of Texas; Miss Rose Clayton is a student in the Southwestern Normal school at New Orleans, La.; Walter Ponder is in business with his father in El Paso; Miss Kathleen Farris is at home in El Paso; Miss Dorothy Gordon is teaching at the Thomas school in El Paso; Miss Minnie Han-ning is taking a post graduate course at the high school; Christian Jung-Johann and Ramon Jung-Johann are at home on the Jung-Johann ranch at Clint, Tex.; Alfred Black is a student at the Texas State School of Mines; Miss Elizabeth Routledge has assisted in Spanish at the high school this year; Miss Lena Butchko is at home in El Paso; Miss Mary Keating is at home in El Paso; Miss Antonette Matkin is a student at the University of Texas; Earl H. Weisiger is a student at the Texas State School of Mines; Miss Lambert is a student at the University of Texas; Miss Edna Richardson is at home in El Paso.

Miss Minnie Lee Lanier is now Mrs. P. J. Tibbets and is at home in El Paso; Eldon Routledge is a student at the State School of Mines; Elgie Means is a student in the University of Texas; James Gorman is a student in the University of Texas; Miss Mattie Clark is taking a post graduate course at the high school; Louis Nell Mulvaney is at work in El Paso; Miss Elizabeth Lucas is at home in El Paso; Miss Eunice Preston is at home in El Paso; Miss Hill is a student in the University of Texas; Miss Maria Mateus is at home in El Paso; Steve Lattner is a student at the University of Texas; Miss Clara Corbin is a student of the University of Arizona, at Tucson, and has recently carried off the distinction of being the first woman to graduate from there; Miss Barbara Byers is attending St. Louis university; Ralph Nell is in Mexico in business; Miss Darnall is at work in El Paso; Miss Lambert is a student in a Tennessee college; Miss Bernice Thomas is at work in El Paso; Shirley Schwartz is a student in the University of California; Miss Theresa Youngberg is at her home in Iowa; Reed Harlan is at work in El Paso.

The class of 1915 is very much scattered. Charles Kilburn completes his sophomore year at the United States Military Academy at West Point this spring and will return to El Paso to spend his summer at home. Miss Isabelle Springer will graduate in June from the College of Ethical Culture in New York city and will be prepared to work as a kindergarten teacher. She will return to El Paso for the summer.

Miss Alma Morrison, after a year's study in the University of Texas, has been teaching school in El Paso this past year. The first half of the year as the cadet teacher at the high school, and the final half of the year as a cadet teacher at the Alamo school.

Miss Lillian Lockwood is in El Paso teaching school; Miss Frances Henderson is in California; Miss Marie Schwartz is in El Paso; Miss Isabelle Valentine is a cadet teacher at the Beall school; Miss Grace Fleck is a teacher at the Highland Park school; Nelson Rheinboldt is at work in El Paso; Miss Clara Fink is at work in El Paso; Angier H. Foster completes his sophomore year at the University of California; Miss Margaret Bryan is teaching school at Canutillo, Tex.; Miss Opal Hadlock is a teacher at the Canutillo school; Adkins Bowden is in California.

Miss Lillian Lockwood is a cadet teacher at the Beall school for the final half of this year. The first half of the term, Henry Schumacher is in El Paso at work; Miss Bernice Thomas is attending the Columbia university in New York city, taking a course in domestic science; Miss Edna Richardson is a student at the Texas State School of Mines; Henry Stern is an electrician in El Paso; Edgar Vidler is a student in the University of Chicago.

Of the class of 1912, Miss Mary Andrews is finishing her year at the University of Texas this spring; Miss Pauline Bryan has been at home, but is now visiting in Kansas; Irving Schwartz is in El Paso; Miss Edna Palmer is teaching music in El Paso; Rowland Stanfield is attending the Colorado State school in Boulder, Colo.; Joe Worsham is a junior student at the University of Texas; Miss Bernice Thomas is a student at the State College of Industrial Arts at Denton, Tex.; Miss Augusta Markgraf is a teacher at the Aoy school; Roy Sullivan is attending the University of Texas at Austin; Frank Lucas is in El Paso; Edward Warren is a student at the Purdue university at Lafayette, Ind.; Miss Edith Herlein is a teacher at the Alamo school; Miss Mary Campbell is now in California and will take her course at the University of California.

Miss Mattie Clark is now Mrs. Frank M. Lynch and lives in El Paso; Miss Mary Corbin is a student at the University of California; Miss Nellie Hamilton is a student of the University of California; Mrs. Ernest Heister, and is living in El Paso; Miss Mary Leighton is a teacher at the Franklin school; Miss Mary Lewis is a teacher at the Highland Park school; Miss Ruth Long is a teacher at the Franklin school; Miss Beatrice McElreath is at work in El Paso; Miss Bernice Murtie is now Mrs. Ed Miller and is in California; Miss Josephine Day is a student of the College of Industrial Arts at Denton, and is the editor in chief of the school paper; Miss Gladys Strickland is a teacher at the county school at Yuleta; Miss Nellie Farris is at home in El Paso; Henry Blume and Will Hawkins are students at the University of Texas; John Smith is running a jitney service in Austin while attending the university; Vernon Leman is in business in Chihuahua, Mex.; Francis J. Lyons will graduate from the University of Texas; Robert and Russell Price are students of the University of California; H. M. Morris is connected with the postal service of El Paso; Robert Mullin is in business in El Paso.

David Mulcahy and Norman Morrison, of the class of 1911, will graduate this June from the University of Texas.

An interesting entertainment was given for the benefit of the San Jacinto school library Thursday night, in the ball room of the Elks club house. The program, "An Evening with the Pleiades," was devoted to music, dancing and an interesting talk by Miss Annie C. McQueen on the constellation of the Pleiades and the mythology and symbolism connected with this group of seven stars. The program was given by Miss Annie C. McQueen, violin solo, played by Joseph Thuma, accompanied by Miss Augusta Fahrenbaum, on the piano. The boys of the Elks club sang with Miss Fahrenbaum. Following Miss McQueen's talk on the Pleiades, Miss McElreath recited "Alcyon," and Miss Laura Maude Fink playing a musical accompaniment. The dance of the Pleiades was given by Misses Bernice Boyle, Lella Stannell, Lois Wilson, Esther Hatley, Ruth Morton and Katherine Franklin, with Blanch Lucas as "Alcyon." Leading Miss Fink sang for the dancing. Miss Harriet Heermann gave the dance of the lost Pleiades. The girls wore white dresses with ribbons on their hair of various colored ribbons. Joseph Thuma played "Pavane" and "Humoresque." J. H. Phillips sang "A Perfect Day." The program closed with an illustrated lecture on Greece, by superintendent R. J. Tighe.

The members of the graduating class of the El Paso high school will be entertained Saturday afternoon by Miss Pearl Ponder, at her home on North Kansas street.

Cards.

Mrs. Wyche Greer entertained the Half and Half club Thursday afternoon at her home on Lee street. Only the club members were present. Mrs. S. T. Cross and Mrs. Paul Ginter were the prize winners. Mrs. Paul Ginter will be the hostess for the club next week.

Mrs. L. D. Stark entertained Thursday afternoon with a bridge party in honor of her sister, Mrs. A. Farris, of Carlsbad, N. M. Mrs. Stark's home on Mundy avenue was decorated with tullest of the blossoms of the season. The color plan of the party was lavender and white, used in the decorations, the favors and the refreshments, and each guest was given a corsage bouquet of lavender and white sweetpeas. Mrs. L. Stark won the first prize, Miss Della Goodman received the second prize and Mrs. L. Goodsmith received the consolation prize in playing bridge. Mrs. Barney Cohn received the buncie prize. The guest of honor was presented with an attractive prize. A three course luncheon was served after the game. There were six tables of play. Mrs. L. Goodman assisted the hostess in entertaining.

Women's Organizations.

The Sunshine Helpers will give a tea Saturday afternoon at the home of Miss Mabel O'Connor, at the corner of Santa Fe and Missouri streets. A musical program will be given during the afternoon with Misses Laura Maude Fink, Alice O'Neil, Emily Kemp and Mrs. H. E. Bowles taking part. The patronesses of the affair will be Mesdames Tom Lea, C. E. Kelly, Parvin Witte, Frank Bennett, A. Goodman, T. W. Lattner, W. W. Fink, W. R. Brown and Claude H. Hudspeth. The affair will be for the benefit of the Sunshine Day Nursery.

Mrs. George A. Campbell was the hostess for the weekly meeting of the El Paso chapter of the Daughters of the Empire, Thursday afternoon, at her home on Union avenue. Mrs. R. R. Allen, the president presided. The usual routine reports of the officers were presented. The motto, "He who loves his country cannot hate mankind," was adopted. It was decided to devote the meetings to making articles to be sold for the benefit of the Red Cross relief work among the armies in the European war. The meeting next Thursday afternoon will be held at the home of Mrs. J. M. Frank, the secretary of the chapter, on Los Angeles street.

Mrs. W. H. Pickels was elected president of the Woman's Missionary union of the city, at the final meeting of the union, held Thursday afternoon at the Sunday school room of the First Presbyterian church. Mrs. I. J. Ayers was elected vice president; Mrs. Tom Lea, secretary; Mrs. T. E. Kitch, treasurer. The ticket was presented by Mrs. Bradford Hardie, chairman of the nominating committee. Mrs. R. J. Jones presided at the meeting. Mrs. R. B. Thomas gave the scripture lesson and Mrs. A. Hodge led the prayer. A brief business session followed. Mrs. W. H. Pickels were appointed a committee to see about the disposal of the tubercular poor at the county hospital. Rev. Perry J. Rice talked on the mission for women. Mrs. H. T. Boyer talked on the Y. W. C. A. work. Mrs. I. Elmhurst talked on the work of the Travelers' church. Mrs. H. T. Boyer talked on the Y. W. C. A. work. Mrs. I. Elmhurst talked on the work of the Travelers' church. Mrs. H. T. Boyer talked on the Y. W. C. A. work. Mrs. I. Elmhurst talked on the work of the Travelers' church.

The Philathea class of Trinity Methodist church entertained in honor of their mothers Thursday afternoon in their class room at the church. The room was decorated with vines and wild flowers for the occasion. Mrs. Geo. R. Oliver, the teacher, introduced Miss Margaret Cunningham, president of the class, who gave the welcoming address to the mothers. Little Miss Dorothy Danielson sang a "Little Mother" song after which Miss Juliette Wingo gave a piano solo, "Plantation Melodias." This was followed by a reading, "The White Carnation," given by Miss Anita Cook. Mrs. H. T. Boyer and Miss Boyd sang solos. Mrs. Oliver gave a review of the work done by the girls during the past year. A quartet, "The Whole Family," by Little Boy Blue, was given. After the program a salad course was served, and white carnations were given to the mothers. Among those present were Mesdames Steen, Fletcher, Yerkes, Miller, Binford, Danielson, Hoffman, Ballard, Lattner, and Lewis. Those who sang solos were: W. Whitman, Ruth Cunningham, Winans, Daugherty, Hoard, Ayres, Burton, Jones, Schrock, Hughes, Boudette, Minna, Croyle, Irene Smith, and Bluffield, and Misses Louise Hooper, Anna Ross Montague, Margaret Cunningham, Emma Hoffman, Anita Cook, Mrs. Thomas Taylor, Vera Ballard, Rena Shea, Vernon Cunningham, Mabel Murray, Juliette Wingo and Boyd.

El Pasoans Away.

Says the Los Angeles Herald: "In honor of Miss Mabel O'Connor of El Paso, who is the guest of friends, Mrs. Harman Ryus entertained with a luncheon party Friday afternoon, following the festival at the Friday Morning club. Among those who enjoyed the afternoon were Mrs. William W. Woods and Mrs. M. L. Turner, formerly of El Paso."

Lodges and Clubs.

The Epworth league of Trinity Methodist church has postponed the business and social meeting which was to have been held Friday evening on account of the death of Miss Irene Clayford. The meeting will be held next Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Juliette Smith, 101 North El Paso.

Weddings.

Miss Bertha Agnes Graves, of Phoenix, Ariz., and Albert G. Schmitt, of Chicago, were quietly married Thursday at Trinity Methodist church by the pastor, Rev. C. Wesley Webber.

Out Of Town Visitors.

Charles Qualey, Chihuahua mining man, returned to his properties west of Chihuahua, Thursday evening after a brief business trip to El Paso.

ED. CAPLES IS JAILED ON COMPLAINT OF HIS WIFE

A Santa Monica dispatch to the Los Angeles Tribune says: On the complaint of his wife that he was breaking up the furniture and wrecking the home, Edward P. Caples, Jr., was arrested and booked at the police station on a charge of disturbing the peace. When the police arrived at the Caples home, they allege they found the furniture strewn over one of the rooms, and the young wife in tears. A few weeks ago Caples had a similar disagreement with his wife and she left him. A few days ago he went to the apartments where his wife was living, and a reconciliation was effected.

Ladies' Shirt Special.—Hand tailored in my own shop; wide variety of all-wool fabrics, from $10 up. B. E. Kuehne custom tailor, 400 San Francisco St., phone 2447.—Advertisement.

The latest eastern fads in stationery can be found at the El Paso Book Co., Mills Bldg. Watch our windows.—Adm.

MIAMI TO HAVE $75,000 SCHOOL; PLANS MADE HERE

J. O. Elliott, superintendent of schools at Miami, Ariz., is here to assist in preparing plans for the new Miami high school, which will cost $75,000. Mr. Elliott is spending several days here watching the development of the work. Monday the school board from Miami will come down to see the plans and pass on them before they are finally adopted. The school will be one of the finest in Arizona and work will start this summer on it.

Parties.

Mrs. Edwin Burt entertained the members and friends of the First Congregational church Thursday night at her home on Arizona street. An entertaining musical program was given. Vocal selections were rendered by Mrs. J. J. Tyndall, Mrs. J. W. Loretan, Miss Della Rosensteln and Harry Rosensteln. Miss Annie Stolaroff played their piano accompaniments and also played piano solo. The room was decorated with sweet peas and ferns. Rev. Miles Hanson gave an interesting talk on church work. Light refreshments were served. The monthly social meetings will be discontinued during the summer.

Schools and her children, dear to all people from the quaint nursery rhymes, entertained a large audience at the First Methodist church Thursday night. Nellie Bretney made an excellent Mother Goose and recited the familiar rhymes in a pleasing way, while the members of the primary department of the Sunday school in appropriate costumes posed for the tableaux. Miss Madeline Fisk opened the program with piano solo, "Ten Little Indians," was posed by James Biss, Ledrus Savage, Billy McQuatters, Kenneth Valentine, Navey Hutchins, Max Thomas, Myron Appleton, Logan Hutchins, Harry Kusinsky and Gladie Connor. "Mary Quite Contrary" was represented by Madeline Kuhn, Marjorie Francis, Lois Porter and Dorothy Johnson. "Little Boy Blue" was acted by John Armstrong, "Curly Locks" by Madeline Francis, "Dr. Foster" by Francis Wilson, Elizabeth Butler, and the "gentleman" in this tableau was Kenneth Valentine. Dale Gibson was the "Ten O'clock Scholar," Miss Elizabeth Roe sang "Little Boy Blue," Addie Blas was "Polly put the Kettle On," with Joise Jones as "Suckey," and the maids were Louraine Woehler, Joyce Wheeler, Virginia Gardner and Loretta Briggs. Sara Kuhn was "Little Miss Muffet," Harriette Hunter was "Lucy Lockett" and Louise Hunter was "Rilly Fisher," "Jack and Jill" were represented by Myron Appleton and Margaret Coward. Gladie Connor was "Old King Cole" and his fiddlers three were Wendell Trumbull, Robert Bogie and Edward Myers. "Chatterbox Woehler" was "Tom Tucker," James Blas was "Pumpkin Eater," and his wife was Roberta Trumbull. After these tableaux an amusing dialog was given in which the various Mother Goose characters discussed ways to fill Mother Hubbard's empty cupboard. In the dialog those taking part were: Myron Appleton, as "Little Boy Blue," Sara Kuhn as "Miss Muffet," Chester Wood as "Tommy Tinker," Julia Fisher as "Mary," Gladie Connor as the "king," Mildred Carpenter as the "queer old man" as "Jack Horner," Harry Kusinsky as "Simple Simon," Elizabeth Durkee as "Bo Peep," Margaret Coward as "Jill" and Louise Kuehne as "Jack." Miss Jones was "Mary who had a little lamb." Austin Foote was "Jack Spratt," Ruth Thomas was "Dame Trot," Pauline Dillon was "Pussycat" and Mrs. Nettie Bretney "Mother Goose." Morris Jarritt sang "Oh, Mother, How My Little Dog Gones," Della Klefer played piano solo. Catherine Winters posed for the old woman in the basket. Harry Kusinsky posed for the tableau of "Simple Simon" and his "Pie-man" was Kenneth Valentine. Louise Price was "Red Riding Hood." Alma Thomas was the plate. Helen Winters the spoon and Ruth Thomas the cat, in the picture "Herr, Fiddle, Fiddle." The King in "His Counting House" was posed by Gladie Connor as the king, Mildred Carpenter as the queen and Frances Savace as the maid. Virginia Reynolds was "Elizabeth," Helen Valentine was "Elebeth," Elsie Strauss was "Betsy," and Clara Alexander was "Bess" in the picture to illustrate the rhyme, "Little Stappleton was 'Chin-sella.' Gladie Connor was the prince and the two sisters were posed by Madeline Fier and Louise Price. Darryl Boie was the page. The program closed with the singing of "London Bridge" and "Goodby" by all the children.

EIGHT WYOMING STREET LOTS AND A RESIDENCE ARE SOLD
J. M. Vasquez has bought eight lots on Montana street, fronting Austin park, for $4500, from the Hawkins Improvement company.
H. P. Jackson has sold to Sabine Appodaca the five room house at 218 Walnut street, in Bassett's addition, for $2150. Hawkins Bros. made both sales.

ANOTHER HABEAS CORPUS HEARING FOR V. OCHOA

Habeas corpus proceedings to fix the bond of Victor L. Ochoa, held in connection with the robbing of the Kress store recently, were held before Judge R. E. Fox in the 41st district court Friday afternoon.
Ochoa's bond was recently fixed at $2000 in habeas corpus proceedings by Judge Ballard Caldwell in the 45th district court.

12 PRISONERS ESCAPE FROM CITY ROCK PILE

Twelve city prisoners, working on the chain game, made their escape from a rock pile located outside the city Thursday.

The men broke away from their guard, a new man, when a blast was fired.

Several of the men were recaptured Thursday night, chief of police Don Johnson stated.

Cook Books Here.

Just received a new shipment of Mrs. Edna Evans' cook book. Owing to the demand for these books this supply will doubtless become exhausted in a day or two. To avoid being disappointed, The Herald suggests early purchasing. These books are now on sale at The Herald office at 25 cents each.

DRESS STOLEN FROM BOY'S MOTORCYCLE

A $24.50 dress was stolen from a motorcycle belonging to the Red Top messenger service Thursday afternoon.

The motorcycle was driven by Lou Ray and he had stopped to deliver a package in the 200 block on Mesa avenue. While he was gone, the package containing the dress was taken. It was being delivered for the Popular store.

PIONEER DAY CELEBRATION TO BE HELD NEXT MONDAY

Pioneers of El Paso will hold their annual reunion and old time picnic at Hart's mill Monday. The El Paso County Pioneers' association is arranging for the annual picnic of the old settlers and the dinner will be served at 1 o'clock Monday on the site of the proposed pioneer building and park at the mill.

proposed pioneer building and park at the mill.

The pioneer day dinner is unique as only the foods which could be bought in El Paso before 1882 are served. Mexican cooks are employed and many Mexican dishes are served. After the meeting the annual election of officers of the association will be held and reminiscences of the veteran El Pasoans will be told.

GROCERY SPECIALS

Fresh Texas Eggs, guaranteed, per doz.	25c
Fancy Creamery Butter, per lb.	30c
Plain Smoked Hams, per lb.	17c
Plain Breakfast Bacon, all lean, per lb.	22c
Evaporated Peaches, per lb.	10c
Large Gold Dust, per pkg.	20c
Diamond M Flour, 24 lb. Sack	$1.10
(Guaranteed to bake good bread)	48 lb. Sack $2.15
Royal Pilsner Beer, 3 full pint bottles for	25c
	$1.00 per dozen.
Pure California Wines—Port, Angelica, Muscatel, Sherry and Claret	25c per bottle.
	$1.00 per gallon.

LION GROCERY CO.

109-111 S. Stanton. Phones 2405 and 2424.

Bread Baked In Great Ovens

When we put a batch of loaves into our ovens we know they're going to come out perfectly baked. It takes intense heat, evenly maintained, to produce perfectly baked bread. That's where our wonderful ovens give us the advantage over the housewife with her tiny range.

Quit overheating yourself at the task of baking and buy the product of these big, efficient ovens.

For Sale by All Grocers. Made by

Rurity
BAKING CO.

Last Chance

To buy the Electric Cooking Stove at reduced price.

Saturday May 8th
Is the Last Day
GRILSTOVOS Will
Be Sold at $3.35

The most complete electric cooking device on the market—Attaches to any lamp socket—Costs no more to operate than an electric iron.

Tomorrow Is the LAST DAY of the Special Sale

EL PASO ELECTRIC RY. CO.

Electric Building. Phone 2323.

On Fish

LEA & PERRINS' SAUCE adds wonderfully to the flavor—but use it because it increases the nutritive elements of fish.

Lea & Perrins' SAUCE

FISH SALAD—Break 1 pound cold, cooked fish in small pieces, remove skin and bones. Wash and dry 2 tablespoons maida, stir in 2 tablespoons olive oil, 1 tablespoon vinegar, 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1/2 teaspoon pepper to taste. Mix salad with fish and season well with dressing. File up in a salad bowl, garnish with green peas, quarters of hard cooked eggs and slices of cooked beets.

WE KNEAD OUR BREAD WELL...

you need it also. After you have eaten just one slice of our bread you will never be at a loss to know where to get good bread in the future. We use but the best materials and our bakery is sanitary. That's the reason our goods are so tasty.

Powell's Home Bakery
411 E. Boulevard Phone 2501

In the candies where cream and butter are necessary for smoothness and richness—cream and butter are used in

Huyler's
FRESH EVERY HOUR

On Sales Agents in El Paso are Elite Confectionery Co. Kelly & Pollard.

Huyler's Cocoa, like Huyler's Candy, is supreme

Open Stock China

The modern housewife makes her selections carefully as to color, shape and styles in vogue.

Our stock is direct from New York, all new, up to date, exclusive, and at prices that will please you.

DeKyle Smith
102 North Stanton St.

Women!

WATCH FOR DATES OF THE GREATEST

Kitchen Utensil Sale

Krakauer, Zork & Moye's S. I.

RETAIL DEPARTMENT
117 San Francisco St.
"HARDWARE SATISFACTION"

THERE SHOULD BE A VICTROLA IN EVERY HOME

W. G. WALZ COMPANY

"EVERYBODY IS USING IT NOW"

Eastern Coffee

COFFEE

PRESIDENT AMBASSADOR STATESMAN

He who buys home products loves home.